FOREWORD

This book includes all the known ancestors of Flora Ellen (Price) Sutton. Collateral lines are also included and where information was readily available, descendants of both direct and collateral lines down to the present are listed.

Information was obtained from the usual cources--court records, census, cemetery listings and correspondence. A lot of the data on contemporaries was obtained from newspapers of Pulaski County (Somerset) Kentucky, especially pertaining to those people who still live in that county.

Children are not always written up in birth order. In the 15 years this work has been in progress, additional information was found from time to time and it was not compatible with my method of record keeping to always have the children listed and written up in order of birth. Not all family groups are complete but it is hoped enough information is shown to enable anyone interested to connect their line with their earlier ancestor.

I have not used a lot of periods, especially after abbreviations, as in my opinion they give the page a "cluttered" look and are distracting. One is supposed to use an elaborate numbering system but I didn't. Page number references are given throughout the text and one should be able to trace a line forward or back without too much difficulty. As the song goes, "I did it my way".

It has been said that it is courteous to leave something for future genealogists to do and I have done that!

The last section of this book is charts on Ancient & Royal Lines. These were included "just for fun" and should not be taken too seriously even though I suppose they are, in the main, correct. At least they are generally as accepted by authorities on the subject. However, it takes only one error as to the correct parent of a child to throw half of the ancestors back of that child out of kilter! This section was not indexed except for a few names.

No doubt there are errors to be found herein, and especially as regards later generations. It is my hope and belief that information pertaining to the earliest ancestors is correct. I have tried to resist the temptation to reach up into thin air and select a name for an ancestor with no proof or at least strong circumstantial evidence to support such conclusion. References for sources of information pertaining to the earliest generation of each line is given in some detail in the text.

In 1903 John James of Alvardo, TX who was born on Flat Lick Creek, Pulaski Co, Ky Apr 29, 1852 s/o Cyrenus and Amanda (Hall) James and a grandson of Joseph M & Rhoda May James, wrote a short history in which he referred to his uncle Henry James and Henry's wife, Rachel. He states that Rachel was a Trimbleto but I have not seen any record of Trimbletos in Pulaski Co and believe she was Rachel Tomlinson. Excerpts from John James' history:

"In Feb 1857 father and family and uncle Henry and his young bride (who was Rachel Trimbleto) moved to Illinois. Jess Nance hauled us to Danville, Ky in a covered wagon...uncle Henry being drunk all the way and his young wife crying all the time. Uncle Mack offered her $25 if she would go back to her father. We traveled from Danville to Louisville on the train, crossed the Ohio river on a large steam ferry boat...We went to Pesotum, Illinois on the train, uncle Henry drinking all the way and aunt Rachel crying all the way. It was all father and aunt Rachel could do to keep the conductor from putting him off the train."

William Smith moved to Fayette Co, KY ca 1783. He had a home on Winchester Pike near Lexington, owned a lot of land in Fayette Co and became very wealthy. He lived near Bryan's Station

From: Perrin's History of Kentucky, Fayette County - Joseph Granville Smith, druggist, Lexington, is a great grandson of the old pioneer known as "Gold Mine" Billy Smith, one of the wealthiest in Fayette Co in early days and so called on account of the annual munificient donations he made to his children. His grandson, Granville Smith, the father of our subject, was born in Scott Co, KY Apr 9, 1807, he was the son of a wealthy farmer. His mother died when he was young and he was raised and educated by his grandfather, attending a private school at David's Fork...at age 17 he, Granville, manifested love for mechanical persuits...became a skilled carpenter and cabinet-maker...moved to a 396 acre farm in 1840, 4 miles from Lexington on the Maysville Pike. He died June 2, 1874. He was married Nov 7, 1844 to Sarah A Boswell of Leesburg, KY and there are 5

SMITH

James[1] Smith b before 1765 d after 1821 in Pulaski Co, Ky married ___

According to a letter in the Lee Family File at the Kentucky Historical Society in Frankfort, Ky, written by Mrs Emma Lee Bettis in 1942, Lt. Jonathan & Eleanor McGhee Smith of Prince Edward Co, VA were the parents of Jonathan Drury Smith of Pulaski Co whose daughter Levicy Smith married in 1818 Greenberry Lee (No proof found of this)

There is indication from records in Pulaski Co that Jonathan Smith, father of above Levicy Smith Lee, who died in Pulaski Co in 1815 was the son of James Smith Sr

June 23, 1801 On motion of James Smith Sr proof made that said Smith entitled to 400 acres of land by virture of having improved same...waters of Buck Creek...Greenberry Middleton's line...(PCK OB 1-141) Jan 28, 1806 Sheriff to pay Jonathan Smith & James Smith 75¢ each for serving as guards over Rainey & Fuller when imprisoned for benefit of John (Simpson?) Esq. (PCK OB 2) Mar 27, 1809 Court fined James Smith $5.00 for failing to move off a seat in the court house that had been reserved for one of the justices (PCK OB) This may have been James[1] Smith as Jonathan[2] Smith was an active member of court, etc)

Dec 1810 James Smith sr security for Jonathan Smith and William Smith as admrs of estate of John Smith (PCK OB 2-375) (Jonathan, William and John evidently brothers and all sons of James Smith Sr)

In Jonathan[2] Smith's house in 1810 census there was one male over 45 years of age (born before 1765) probably Jonathan's father. When Jonathan[2] Smith wrote his will in 1815 his father was living because the will reads, "after my father's decease" (PCK WB 1-190) In the 1820 census there is one male over 45 (born before 1775) living with William[2] Smith, brother of Jonathan[2] who had died ca 1815

Apr 26, 1802 Reuben Hill, Jacob Blackledge...to select route for road from Somerset to intersect road leading to the Crab Orchard Road near Capt. James Smith's (PCK OB 1) May 24, 1802 Court approved route of road from Somerset to Crab Orchard road near James Smith's. Jeremiah Boone & Adonijah Morgan, as surveyors (PCK OB 1)

Descendants of the above Wm R Smith who married a Gilmore, claim kin to the late Ben V Smith, an attorney in Somerset. Wm[2] Smith's will mentions "two oldest sons Jonathan and Joseph" and Jonathan's name is mentioned first indicating that he was older than Joseph. William & Delilah were married in 1805 and the Jonathan Smith who married Sarah McAlister was born ca 1806 according to the 1850 census--must be the same Jonathan in view of the above.

Jonathan[2] & Rebecca Neal Smith, pg 190

In Harriette Simpson Arnow's book, "The Flowering of The Cumberland", pg 76, she refers to these heirs of Jonathan Smith and William Smith being their guardian as follows:

"In guardianships, the mother lived with her children and the guardian merely gave an accounting to the court as they were by law required to do. The account of William Smith, guardian for the estate of Jonathan Smith, deceased though coming past the pioneer period, 1816-1825, sheds much light on family activities and expenditures in Pulaski Co, KY in the early years. The family was not by Pulaski County standards wealthy, as the division of property among the older children required only the consumption of two gallons of whiskey. Much of the income of the remaining children came from the farm and the hiring out of the slaves. The list of expenditures show all the joys and sorrows of the growing Joseph, Lucinda, Peggy and Anne. Anne, for example came down with the white swelling and the doctor bill for this alone was $20. In the bills for tuition, we know that all the children were sent to school. We can imagine the happiness of Lucinda with her new saddle and bridle that cost $36.50, though nice things were not too rare in their lives--Morocco slippers, combs, fancy shawls, materials for dresses. The most expensive item was Lucinda's Leghorn bonnet that with trimmings cost $15.50, more than a month's wages for an unskilled worker in that time and place, or in terms of whiskey at the Pulaski County price, better than 70 gallons.   John S May was a direct descendent of a German refugee student, George May, who fled from Saxony, Germany in the disguise of a sailor and landed at Philadelphia in 1701. George May's son Jacob was the father of John May, whose son William was the father of John S May. John S May was born Jan 21, 1835 and reared on a farm in Pulaski Co. He engaged in farming until 1851 when he began to teach school. On Sept 13, 1862 he enlisted in the Confederate Army, Co. C, 6th KY Cal under command of Col. J Warren Grigsby and Capt. J B Perkins. May was 2nd Lt. He was captured in Wayne Co, Ky the Sunday before Christmas in 1862, was marched on foot in front of the 9th Ky Cal to Lebanon, where he was placed in jail for one week and taken to Louisville, Ky and placed in the barracks, remaining there about a month. He was then removed to Camp Chase, Columbus, Ohio where he was a prisoner until Apr 11, 1863 when he was taken to Ft Delaware and confined until Apr 29. He was put on a steamer "State of Maine", being later removed to City Point and exchanged. Immediately upon being exchanged, he boarded the train at Petersburg, Va to go to Lynchburg, Va. While riding on a boxcar near Liberty he stood up to speak to a Doctor Parberry. The train passed under an overpass and a beam struck May in the back of the head, rendering him insensible for ten days. When he was able to join Gen. John H Morgan at Sparta, TN May 19, 1863, he crossed the Cumberland River on the Ohio raid with Gen. Morgan and on July 19, 1863 was captured at Buffington Island and taken to Camp Douglas in Chicago, IL remaining there until Feb 1865. He was then removed to Richmond, Va and again exchanged. He was with Gen. Robert E Lee's Army when Lee surrendered at Appomattox in April 1865. After spending some time at Blue Ridge Springs, VA in 1868 he attended school at Gilmore Seminary and in 1869 at the Masonic College, Somerset, Ky. In 1878 he was elected common-school commr of Pulaski Co. In Aug 1882 he was elected county clerk and again in Aug 1886. On March 23, 1858 he married Elizabeth McQueary of Pulaski Co, a d/o Plesant and Margaret (Smith) McQueary. They had 9 children: Virgil P, Thaddeus K, John W, Lillie, Stella, Samuel J, Tilden, Joseph Garfield and Minneolo. Mrs May d June 13, 1885. She was a member of the Christian Church. May was a member of the IOOF fraternity and a Republican (Pulaski County Historical Research Book II from Perrin's History)

Legend has it that John May was extremely intelligent in "book learning" but somewhat deficient in common sense. Surely it is an exaggeration that as a young man, he often had difficulty finding his way home at night!

"Whistler Bill" Smith was injured in a fall from a horse. He was permanently disabled from the injuries and made baskets for a living (Oscar Estes b 1874 d 1956)

Joseph[3] & Polly Evans Smith, pg 201
William & Emeline Dowell Smith, pg 202

"Whistler Bill" had a son who was crippled in an accident involving a horse (Doolin Smith Dec 1973) Also, according to Doolin Smith, "Whistler Bill" had a brother who went down to Baker's still at Baker's cave (later Fletcher's and now Miss Floyd's cave) and got a jug of whiskey. Harlon Smiley later found Smith frozen to death by a rail fence. The Smith man was buried in the Smith cemetery at Dabney. (If this was a brother, it was probably James C Smith) Legend according to descendants of Eliza Ann Smith who married Wm Hays is that the Smith man who froze to death after a visit to Baker's still was Wm Smith son of Wm & Elizabeth Hedrick Smith, who married Sarah Elizabeth Vaught, and that he was buried in the Smith cemetery at Dabney.

1860 and 1870 census, William Smith was listed as a cabinetmaker. In 1860 they lived near James Doolin who was a merchant at Bobtown or Dabney. William & Emeline were members of Salem Church (Ch rec)

In 1880 Wm Smith's mother and sister lived with him next house to Albert Price. Sarah E Smith, Dabney, Ky, widow of Wm Smith who served in Co. L, 29th KY during Civil War is listed in the 1890 special census of Union Veterans of the war

The legend according to some members of this Smith family, William[4] Smith who married Sarah Elizabeth Vaught, drank quite a lot; was out prowling around one night, fell and froze to death. This sounds very much like Doolin Smith's story of his grandfather's brother who was found frozen to death and was buried on the hill (Smith cem) at Dabney

PREFACE

This is the first volume of a proposed two-volume set of cemetery records of Pulaski County, Kentucky. There are 175 cemeteries in this first book, and many more still to be recorded in our second volume, so that upon completion of the two, we hope to have listed every marked grave in the county.

Several years of planning and preparation have gone into this work, and the Historical Society is well aware of the risks we are incurring by attempting to record thousands of names and dates correctly. For any mistakes found in the book we apologize in advance. Mimeograph was used in the final preparation of this book to facilitate additions and correct mistakes as we found them.

The Historical Society wishes to express gratitude to the many organizations and individuals who assisted and encouraged us in this effort - so many, in fact, that we decided not to try to list them by name for fear of omitting an important helper. To all of these we wish to extend a warm "thank you"!

We also wish to invite anyone to contact us if they know of a cemetery (and especially, any small grave plot) that does not appear in this first volume. Material is already being collected for our second book, but we want to be sure that every grave in the county is included. As many of the larger cemeteries appear in this book, we must now locate every small plot.

The Historical Society is aware that a complete listing of the graves in Pulaski County is a must if we are to successfully realize our goal of preserving the history and lore of this area. It seems fitting that during this year (1976) that a book of this type should be - and is - dedicated to the nation's two-hundreth birthday.

Mrs. Smith

I William Smith of Pulaski County and State of Kentucky and Indisposed in Body But of sound and perfect and being desirous to settle my Worldly affairs do make ou
This my Last Will and Testament

1st and principally after all my Just Debts are paid, I gi my wife Delilah Smith the use and profits of my home pl Mansion House and all other Houses belonging thereto. Such p of my personal estate as will be deemed by my Executors here named sufficient to raise in a Comfortable manner my Infa Children; The remainder to sell and be equally divided, also and benefit of a Negroe man named Joe, a Negroe woman n Abbey, and all the privileges that Widows are entitled to by Law
the State during her natural life provided she remains unmarried if otherwise on the day of Marriage she forfeits all right and cl in the above property and profits, and I order the same to be and applied to the benefit of the Infant Heirs until the you shall arrive at the age of twenty one years, then the remains of property to be equally divided among all my Children, and in of the above property, my Wife's full share is one Horse and Sa one Cow and Calf one Bed and Covering. Secondly it is my w and intentions to my Executors that at least three hundred d of my Money due by note be safely kept on Interest until my youngest Child is twenty one years of age and the Interest ari be applied towards the schooling and supporting my infant ch then at that period the Interest remaining if any remains and principal to be equally divided between my three youngest sons Clemens Williams, and Alexander. Thirdly I will and bequea to my two eldest sons Jonathan Smith, and Joseph Smith, that pi Land called and known by the Briary Tract containing two hun and fifty acres to be equally divided between them. Fourth
Will and bequeath to my three youngest sons, Orvil, Cle Williams and Alexander the remainder of the East called the Saint John tract containing two hundred forty acres also the East Line on Ironton with the additional surveys supposed in all the contains about five hundred acres to be equally divided between them. Eighthly I wish all my slaves to be equally divided among all my children at their appraised value, and allotted by my Executors those heirs having any excess over equal shares to pay it to the heirs who are deficient in their equal share in money, with the exception of the slaves put in my wifes possion. Sixthly the slaves I have allotted to my two Eldest sons Jonathan and Joseph, and to my two Eldest Daughters Melinda Dorlin, and Laticia Tomlinson my will is that the said slaves at their value that is to Jonathan one negroe Boy named Armstrong one negroe girl named Milley. To Joseph one negroe boy named Tom, one negroe girl named Permela. To Melinda Dorlin one negroe girl named Morning and a negroe girl named Mary. To Laticia Tomlinson one negroe girl named Charity. Seventhly I designate my six youngest children to be my infant heirs to wit, Minerva, Lucia Clarissa William, Sally, and Alexander. Eighthly I do instruct and authorise my Executors either Jointly or severally when the or either of them shall in their Judgment be of opinion that necessity requires the sale of all or any part of the Land, I willed and bequeathed to my three youngest sons either to promote their Interest or the better support them to sell said Land and convey Title to purchaser. Ninthly I do constitute and appoint Alexr Adams and my son Joseph Smith Executors of this my last Will and Testament and having entire confidence in my Executors I require no security of them for their performance than the necessary oaths required by law, to perform such acts, and I require my Executors to ascertain the value of the property my Eldest Children has received in advance and pay due regard to the same in making division with the other heirs, who have not received any part, to be adopted as my last will and Testament this 29th day
